No.	Description.	Contributor.
1	Cap of Maintenance , of crimson velvet, embroidered with the City Arms on the crown .. It is, perhaps, difficult to exactly determine the date of this identical cap, as the Act Book on 13 May, 1624, records the order to provide "a New Hat for the Sword Bearer, either at London or elsewhere, of a comely fashion as is now used at London or Bristow."	The Right Worshipful the Mayor of Exeter
2	Sword , given by King Edward IV., when he visited Exeter, on 14th April, 1470 .. This is a plain black scabbard, and was borne before the Mayor on the 30th January.
3	Sword , given by King Henry VII., on his visit to Exeter, on 7th October, 1497 .. The covering and embroidery of the Scabbard is more recent.
4	Two Silver Maces , of the time of King George I. ..
5	One Silver Collar , worn by the Serjeants at Mace .. See Jones and Oliver's description of the Guildhall, Exeter.
